Dear Mr. Maddox:

The Georgia Department of Transportation has reviewed your updated Georgia Uniform Certification Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) application. Our evaluation of the information submitted with your request for certification indicates that your firm has met the criteria outlined in Federal Regulations 49 CFR, Part 26.

Accordingly, your firm has been certified for a period of three (3) years beginning with the effective date of this letter and the expiration date is March 5, 2010.

Your Vendor ID Code is: 2B1055

Your firm has been certified to provide the following services as outlined in the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS):

NAICS Code Computer Systems Design and Related Services

You will receive an annual Affidavit and Personal Financial Statement (PFS) approximately thirty days prior to your firm's certification anniversary date. This Affidavit and PFS must be completed, signed and returned to our office before your anniversary date in order to continue your firm's eligibility as a DBE.

If at any time during the year there is a change in ownership and/or control of your firm, you are required to notify this office of such change immediately in writing.

Sincerely,

Patricia A. Flowers

Dear DBE:

The New Mexico Department of Transportation (NMDOT) Office of Equal Opportunity Programs is pleased to inform you that your firm has been re-approved for certification as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) with the New Mexico Unified Certification Program (NMUCP) and the DOT's DBE Program in accordance with 49 CFR Part 26 as amended. Your firm is certified in the following work categories:

7373 Comp. Sys. Des. & Related Serv. (S4151)

Your certification will expire one (1) year from the date of re-certification should you fail to submit a sworn no change Annual Affidavit, a Personal Net Worth Statement, and a copy of the firm's latest Federal business tax return. Re-certification documentation will be mailed to you approximately 4 - 6 weeks prior to the date of expiration for this certificate. Should any change occur in your firm's ownership or control structure, our office must be notified in writing within thirty (30) days.

We reserve the right to withdraw certification, if it can be determined that DBE certification was knowingly obtained by the submission of false, misleading, or incorrect data. We further reserve the right to request additional information and/or conduct on-site visits at any time during your certification period.

We would like to take this opportunity to re-welcome you to the NMUCP and the NMDOT's DBE Programs. Should you need any assistance, please feel free to contact the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs Bureau, Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Office at 1-800-544-0936 or (505) 827-1774 in Santa Fe.

Sincerely,

Alpharetta, GA 30022

Dear John Levi Maddox:

The Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) is pleased to notify you that your firm has been certified as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) in accordance with Title 49 Part 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations for the period shown above. This certification allows your firm to participate as a DBE on federal contracts let by IDOT, City of Chicago, CTA, Metra and Pace.

IDOT is your host agency. In order to remain in good standing, you must annually submit a No Change Affidavit that will be sent to you at least 60 days prior to the anniversary date of your certification. The Affidavit affirms that there have been no changes in the firm's circumstances affecting its ability to meet size standard requirements, disadvantaged status, ownership, or control requirements or any material changes in the information provided in the certification application.

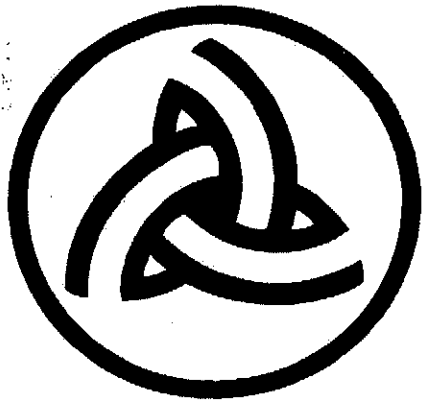

At any time there is a change in the ownership or control of your firm, you are required to immediately notify IDOT's Bureau of Small Business Enterprises' Certification Section and submit the necessary documentation reflecting the change. Failure to provide this information may be grounds for a denial based on a failure to cooperate, pursuant to 49 CFR 26.109(c).

Your firm's name will appear in the next edition of the IL UCP Directory. This directory is used by prime contractors, as well as other agencies, to solicit participation of DBE firms. The directory can be accessed on the Internet at www.dot.state.il.us/ucp/ucp.html.

Please Note:

- This certification does not attest to your firm's abilities to perform in the approved work category(ies).

Re: Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) Certification

Dear Mr. Maddox:

This is to inform you that we have received the annually required documentation from your firm pursuant to DBE federal regulations, and we appreciate your continued interest in the DBE Program.

Upon careful review and evaluation of the information provided, it has been determined that your firm continues to meet the eligibility standards described in the 49 CFR Part 26 (Subparts D and E). Therefore, your firm is approved for continued participation in the DBE Program as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise.

Your next annual update will be due on 5/1/2008. Prior to that date, the Department will notify you of your firm's update requirements. You must report to this office any changes in ownership, management, control, and location of your firm within 30 days of those changes.

If we may be of further assistance, please call Mr. Rogie D. Nelson at (803) 737-1372.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Maddox:

We are pleased to inform you that your company has been found eligible to continue your certification as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) by NJ TRANSIT on behalf of the New Jersey Unified Certification Program (NJ UCP).

The enclosed amended certificate will remain in effect until your anniversary date of July 27, 2008, provided that your company continues to meet the eligibility criteria established by Federal Regulation Title 49 CFR Part 26. Please remember, on an annual basis, you must provide an affidavit and supporting documentation affirming that there have been no changes within your company that would affect your current eligibility as a DBE. It is your responsibility to notify this office in writing within 30 days of any changes. Failure to do so will result in a decertification process. Your company's identification number is 0041152M0705.

The following table lists the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code(s) and description(s) that have been assigned to your company in accordance with the service(s) your company render(s).
